To Whom it may concern,

As Headteacher, I am proud to share our ongoing and valued partnership with CSS.

CSS brings a wealth of expertise, compassion, and tailored support that complements our school's inclusive ethos. Their team works closely with our staff, families, and -most importantly - the children themselves, to ensure that every transition is carefully planned and supported. This collaborative approach has helped us to break down barriers to learning, build confidence, and create environments where children feel safe, understood, and ready to thrive.

Through joint planning, regular communication, and shared professional development, we have seen children who were previously disengaged and even permanently excluded flourish academically, socially, and emotionally. CSS's input has not only supported individual pupils but has also strengthened our whole-school capacity to meet diverse needs.

We firmly believe that every child deserves the opportunity to succeed in a mainstream setting where possible, and our partnership with CSS makes that vision a reality.

If you would like to discuss this further, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours sincerely

Mathew Harper
