

Weekly Schools Bulletin

A resource to support schools and families throughout the COVID-19 pandemic

Audience: Essex Schools
Author: Essex Child and Family Wellbeing Service
Issue: 4
Date: 27 April 2020

Your ECFWS Healthy Schools and Public Health Team are coordinating family friendly activities, advice and guidance for teachers and parents covering themes outlined within national curriculum guidance on Personal Social Health and Economic (PSHE) education. We will be sharing these in the coming weeks on our Facebook pages, which can be found via our website. These resources are easily adaptable at home, school or in 'virtual' classrooms. Teachers and parents are encouraged to visit our COVID-19 Pandemic Resource Hub for support and guidance during this time. We urge you to share this bulletin with your whole school community.

PSHE activities (Ideas to support emotional and physical health)

Title:	Digital Safety and Wellbeing Kit
Content:	With the help of the leading privacy law firm Schillings, the Childrens Commissioner have produced a digital safety and wellbeing kit for parents and a safety guide for children to help ensure they are safe, and their wellbeing is looked after while at home during the coronavirus outbreak when their screen time maybe higher than usual.

Title:	Wildtime!
Content:	The Wilderness Foundation has launched Wildtime , activities to keep you and your family focussed, fit and entertained during the COVID-19 outbreak.

Weekly Schools PSHE Challenge

Each week we will be setting schools a challenge linked to the PSHE curriculum to support wellbeing. Each challenge will be delivered as a question we want your pupils to consider and answer using a range of different ways eg. Podcast, poster, artwork, story, comic strip, newspaper report, mind map or power point presentation by school pupils. Teachers, parents, siblings and friends may provide support with this; alternatively the challenge can be completed independently. We are encouraging you to share with us the work being done so we can celebrate the amazing things you are doing to support pupil wellbeing at this time.
